

Para-Equestrian Developing Driver Clinics presented by
United States Driving for the Disabled, Inc.

August 10,11 2013

Celtic Charms Therapeutic Horsemanship
671 Fort Plains Road
Howell, NJ 07731

Clinicians: Sara Schmitt, USEF 'S' dressage judge and ADS 'n' judge. Represented USA at 3 World Pony Driving Championships. Trains riders and drivers from lower levels through FEI level.

Ann Miles - Carriage Barn Equestrian Center, expert on adaptations for drivers with disabilities.

Diane Kastama, World Champion in Para-Equestrian driving Grade 1. Competes at Advanced combined driving single and pair.

Come improve your driving skills, learn about local, regional and international competition opportunities for the Para-Equestrian. Driving is a great equalizing sport. Come see and feel the freedom of being behind the reins in a carriage. Everyone is welcome to attend and audit. Clinics will provide instruction in driven dressage, hazards and cones. Lessons will be adapted to the skill level of each driver. Bring your own horse and carriage or let us know if you need to borrow a horse and equipment. Classification will be available on August 10. Clinic is free for USDFD members, Auditors welcome.

There will be a try-it-and-see-if-you-like-it for the future para-equestrian driver which provides a chance to get behind the lines and in a carriage to feel the thrill of driving.

Celtic Charms Therapeutic Horsemanship is a facility that is developing its carriage driving program and currently serves the disabled community with riding opportunities. For more information
