

Para-Equestrian Developing Driver Clinics presented by United States Driving for the Disabled.

October 9-13, 2013
Shady Oaks CDE
Lodi, CA

Clinicians: Fritz Grupe, Represented USA in the FEI World Pairs, host and builder of California's premier Combined Driving event Shady Oaks.

Drew Callahan, Advanced driver, Driving and Dressage trainer and coach, based in Scottsdale, Az

Diane Kastama, World Champion in Para-Equestrian driving Grade 1. Competes at Advanced combined driving single and pair.

Clinic is open to Para-Equestrians competing at Shady Oaks CDE limited spots for auditors - contact Diane Kastama

Format of clinic:

Wed afternoon, Thursday - Individual dressage session with Drew Callahan on day prior to competitors scheduled dressage time. Drive your test with Drew and get instant feedback on what you can do to improve your test the next day

Friday afternoon - Group walk with Fritz Grupe out in the hazards. Discuss your routes ask questions of Shady Oaks expert on these hazards.

Saturday afternoon or Sunday morning - Group walk of cones course with Drew Callahan, discuss options to cones, places to make up speed how to approach the tricky sets. Time will be decided based on when cones course is open for inspection.

Contact Diane Kastama dkastama@verizon.net , 805-458-2428
to sign up for clinic. Clinic is free for USDFD members.
Don't forget to visit www.usdfd.org